

Recent News

Written by Administrator

Sunday, 10 August 2008 06:30 - Last Updated Friday, 13 May 2016 19:59

ETM helps John Deere successfully launch new Landscape Loader and Eagle Large Square Baler programs.

Ashley Industrial Molding needed a partner to produce composite parts for two new John Deere programs at two different John Deere plants.

They had very tight timelines and needed to launch the programs within weeks of each other.

Our Engineering, Quality, and Production teams worked closely with Deere and Ashley to qualify the tools and processes, and then quickly produce and ship parts to successfully meet production schedules.